DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US Patent 5,872,531 (hereinafter referred as "Johnson") in view of US Patent 5,103,459 (hereinafter referred as "Gilhousen").

Regarding claims 1-3, Johnson discloses the device serving to receive audio and transmit an RF signal conveying audio modulation, an improvement comprising:

- (a) a steganographic encoder for hiding plural bits of auxiliary data within the audio modulation of said RF signal (see Fig. 16, col. 44, lines 16-65);

Johnson does not disclose a cellular telephone. However, Gilhousen discloses the cellular telephone (see Fig. 3, abstract, col. 14, lines 31-67). At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to combine the cellular telephone teaching by Gilhousen with Johnson. The motivation for doing so would have been to provide to reduce mutual interference, thereby permitting greater user capacity and overcome fading read on column 4, lines 22-24. Therefore, it would have been obvious to combine Gilhousen and Johnson to obtain the invention as specified in the claim 1.

Regarding claim 4, the subject matters of this claim are similarly rejected to claim 1.

Art Unit: 2616

Regarding claims 5 and 6, the subject matters of this claim are similarly rejected to claim 1.

Regarding claim 7, the subject matters of this claim are similarly rejected to claim 1.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 8-13 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 17 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion
